Maria Cecilie Wrang-Rasmussen

Born in 1998 in Denmark, currently based in Edinburgh, Scotland.

Maria Wrang-Rasmussen (she/her) is a Danish Interdisciplinary artist based in Edinburgh. Dipping into memory, unreliable narrators, togetherness, and self-mythologization, she constructs her work with a playful and non-linear approach to language, narrative, and form. Her work touches on feelings of belonging and remembering, often relating to experiences of queerness and connection in combination with a contemporary thematic of digital realities and storytelling.
